Friday of this week, June 18th, marks the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a touching feast that addresses itself to the ever-constant, unconditional love of our Savior for us. In observance of this meaningful Solemnity, there will be a day long Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Stanislaus Kostka Church immediately following the 9:00 a.m. Mass until a 5:00 p.m. Prayer Service, concluding with Eucharistic Benediction. Our Holy Father has especially dedicated this occasion as a day of prayer for the sanctification of priests throughout the world. Make a visit at some point in the day, and pray that the Church may have truly holy priests.
