Sacraments for the Sick

The Anointing of the Sick and Holy Communion are administered at home to our ill and housebound parishioners upon notification. Please inform Father Oulds when anyone is hospitalized. The sick always have a place in our community prayer.

Anyone interested in participating in the music ministry at St. Joseph's should contact Susan Sandoski (610/383-5768) or Andy Levenite (610/384-4665). We have choirs for both young and not so young and we are always on the lookout for new cantors, organists and helpers.

Annual World Mission Sunday Appeal

As noted previously, this weekend is observed as our Annual World Mission Sunday, summoning from us an awareness of the missionary efforts of the Church and our support of these efforts by our frequent prayers and financial assistance. Thus, the second collection this weekend is earmarked as the "Annual World Mission Sunday Appeal". Your customary generous response to this important collection would be greatly appreciated, and certainly not forgotten by the countless missionaries to whom your gift renders aid. God love you!

Solemnity of All Saints: November 1st

Wednesday, November 1st, marks the Solemnity of All Saints, a holy day of obligation. On that day, the Church holds sacred the memory of all those blessed ones, saints known and unknown to us, who have achieved the reward of their faith and have arrived at their destiny of everlasting life. From their place in heaven, they pray for us and serve as an inspiration. In observance of All Saints Day, Mass will be offered at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 31st, in St. Joseph Church and on Wednesday, November 1st, at 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., in St. Stanislaus Kostka Church.

Remembrance of All Souls: November 2nd

Thursday, November 2nd, marks the Remembrance of All Souls, a day to recall our beloved dead and all the faithful departed. They are numbered among the Holy Souls in Purgatory and, as such, knock on heaven's door to gain admittance. We can hasten the fulfillment of this yearning on their part by our Masses, prayers and works of charity in their behalf. Masses for the faithful departed will be offered on All Souls Day at 9:00 and 9:30 a.m. in St. Stanislaus Kostka Church, and at 7:00 p.m. in St. Joseph Church. You are invited to submit the names of your deceased loved ones on the envelope provided for that purpose. These will be placed upon the altar for All Souls Day and for the remaining days of November, the Month of the Holy Souls.
